SUBJECT: Call for Student Nominations for the Emancipation Proclamation Monument

The Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Commission  invites students in grades K-12 to nominate an African American Virginian for recognition on the Virginia Emancipation Proclamation and Freedom Monument. The permanent 12-foot monument, celebrating the emancipation of slaves and freedom, will be located on Brown's Island in Richmond, Virginia.

Nominations may be submitted by an individual, a class, or a school. All nominations must include the nominee's name, place of birth and date, geographical area of Virginia the nominee is associated, a brief description of achievements and/or contributions to emancipation or freedom, and the name and contact information of the person or group submitting the nomination. As a possible resource, Dominion Virginia Power and the Library of Virginia's Strong Men & Women in Virginia History include a list of past honorees from 1991–2016 .
