Commonwealth of Virginia
Virginia Department of Education
Superintendent's Memo #028-22

DATE: February 4, 2022
TO: Division Superintendents
FROM: Jillian Balow, Superintendent of Public Instruction
SUBJECT: 2022-2023 Nominations for Career Success Stars in Career and Technical Education (CTE)

The Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education is seeking nominations of former CTE students in their 20s and 30s who qualify for recognition as one of the Commonwealth's brightest Career Success Stars. The individual success stories will be featured as video profiles on the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) website highlighting how CTE programs provide skills for career success.

Individuals will be selected to represent each of the 17 career clusters and 83 related pathways. Also, there will be a featured story representing an active military personnel. Selection considerations will include diverse representation by gender identity, race/ethnicity, and statewide regional locations. Once selections are made, individuals will be contacted to schedule an appointment for a photograph and video recording session.

The school divisions' CTE administrators will be provided this information and the nomination link to distribute to their schools. The nominations are due to the VDOE by April 29, 2022.

The 2021-2022 Career Success Stars videos will be posted to the VDOE website soon.
